CAMPBELLSVILLE, Ky. - Campbellsville bass fishing has hit the water with a full head of steam this spring but recruiting never stops and coach Tommy Hall is already looking into the future. The first-year head coach has added depth to its roster for 2015-16 with three new signees this week.

Signing days for Ben Riggs, Nick Ratliff and Justin Mayfield were held in the Powell Athletic Center on the campus of Campbellsville University on Monday and Wednesday.

Justin Mayfield, a signee from Pulaski County High School, is another angler who has devoted his entire life on the lake. Mayfield was an avid golfer throughout high school but has decided to put the clubs inside the closet and have bass fishing number one on his priority list.

"Justin has develop a serious passion for the sport," said Hall. "He eat, sleeps and breathes fishing. He has a nice athletic background with his golfing ability but he is also a great student."

What stands out about Mayfield is he is just as smart off the lake as he is on.
